Black Mobs Attacking Whites in Cincinnati Just for the Fun of It

Last weekend, Cincinnati held its annual food festival known as the Taste of Cincinnati. This year they had over 200 different food vendors filling the streets with a wide variety of tastes and smells. City officials estimated that over 550,000 people attended the three day event, helping the city’s economy.

For the most part, the Taste of Cincinnati had few problems, but the crowds did bring trouble makers to parts of the city near the festival. In these cases, mobs of black teenagers attacked white people.

The first reported attack was near a bus stop. The aftermath of the attack was captured on video by a metro bus. Jon Deters, son of the Hamilton County Prosecutor Joe Deters. He was helping his girlfriend get her car out of a parking lot when a group of 12-20 black teens attacked him, hitting him, knocking him to the ground and kicking him before running away.

In another attack, David Manz was walking to a bus stop to go to his night job at a Dunkin Donuts when he saw a group of about 20 black teenage girls run towards him. They laughed as they began hitting and kicking him before running away. Manz suffered bruises, scrapes and several broken ribs. He had to be placed on a breathing machine for a short time to help prevent pneumonia from setting in.
Welcome to my blog, DOOLEY Observed. I have been on the Internet for over 15 years, when nobody knew what a www was. Big company name, no www. Now it is a little company name and a BIG www. How times have changed.

I have never been a big blogger, but recently have gotten more interested. Seems like terrorists, pirates, billions and trillions, friends getting laid off, have peaked my interest. I am retired, so not much I can do …. so I am BLOGGING.

A news item this morning got my interest also. There are more people making a living off of BLOGS, than there are attorneys.

I wish I had started this many years ago.
